

A VISIONARY WINEMAKER

JAYSON WOODBIDGE

The genius of Jayson Woodbridge is not in dispute. A bigger than life character, he has a certain personal flamboyance and no-prisoners-taken persona, but what he and his team do in the vineyards and winery speaks for itself. These are remarkable wines, with his Cabernet Sauvignons some of the very finest in the world.

—ROBERT PARKER, WINE ADVOCATE

Describing Jayson Woodbridge requires a thesaurus. Passionate is a good word, along with driven, charismatic and hedonistic. You could add exacting, arrogant and volatile. Woodbridge is happy to paint a target on his chest and dare you to shoot if he's trying to make a point. And he's always trying to make a point.

—TIM FISH, WINE SPECTATOR

Jayson Woodbridge thinks on another plane of existence, and this alone makes a lot of folks uncomfortable. That his unconventional ideas and ways of doing things clearly get the results only compounds the prevailing notions of a kind of mysterious, unseen, dark matter element that accounts for his success. I would say he's a little like Howard Hughes with a good measure of da Vinci.

BETWEEN 2002 AND 2015 VINTAGES, Jayson Woodbridge, founder and winemaker of Hundred Acre, has attained the singular achievement of having been awarded a total of Twenty-Two perfect 100-point scores by the esteemed Mr. Robert Parker's The Wine Advocate.

"...it takes you deep into the essence of Cabernet Sauvignon as well as the complicated think tank of Woodbridge's brain."

—ROBERT PARKER, WINE ADVOCATE 209, OCT 2013

"If anything, it reminded me of a Château Latour on steroids."

—ROBERT PARKER, WINE ADVOCATE 227, OCT 2016

"...the wine has gotten better and better, and that has been true of nearly every vintage of Hundred Acre I have tasted since the debut 2000."

—ROBERT PARKER, WINE ADVOCATE 201, JUN 2012
